

Linc Hand

Born and raised in the Birmingham, Alabama area, Linc Hand gravitated to acting at an early age. When he was 5 years old he appeared in commercials for Sunshine Puppy Food. And, with a family heritage of entertainers that included Elvis Presley, it was no surprise that entertaining was in his genes.

His love of sports and his athletic talents drew the attention of a local modeling scout who cast Linc in some regional as well as national print ads.

To improve his craft and broaden his opportunities Linc moved west to Hollywood where he began studying under legendary acting coach, Howard Fine. Linc is currently a member of Howard Fine's Master Class.

His confidence and determination has led to numerous national commercials, Theatre performances with The SpyAnts Theatre Company and feature films like, 'Demons in the Woods', 'When I Find the Ocean', 'Chasing Happiness', 'Choke.Kick.Girl' and more.

In addition, he has just landed a major role in the story of "Bonnie and Clyde" scheduled for release this year, along with a leading role in an action film currently in development.

Linc's talents are also recognized by television executives as he is a favorite among television producers in guest appearances and interviews including but not limited to CMT, (Country Music Television), TV LAND as well as Soap Talk.

Linc is currently in development with co-hosting a "Men of True Grit" for a television series. In Hollywood, Linc is the operations director for "iota" Productions, as well as, the Audience Producer for the 'Jimmy Kimmel Live' tapings.

Handsome, good-natured, well-mannered southern boy, Linc Hand is certainly a rising star.
